

Wavelength is a free listening service for anyone aged 18 and over, who would like to talk in confidence about anything that is troubling them.

'Deep Listening is miraculous for both listener and speaker. When someone receives us with open hearted, non-judging, intensely interested listening, our spirits expand.'
- Sue Patton Thoele

How to get in touch.

Wavelength sessions are held at the Elim Centre, Centenary and Wesley Methodist Churches, Camborne

need to talk?

can we help?

Is there something on your mind?

Are you feeling down,
stressed,
facing a crisis,
a life changing decision,
or just need to chat
through something with someone who will listen?

We are here to help.

'The most basic of human needs is the need to understand and to be understood. The best way to understand people is to listen to them.'
- Ralph Nichols

Wavelength is not a counselling service, but provides a listening ear.

Trained listeners* will give you time and space to talk through your concerns and move towards understanding and dealing with them.

'Listening looks easy, but it's not simple. Every head is a world.'

- Cuban proverb

*All our volunteers have undergone specialised listening training or are qualified Counsellors.

'The greatest compliment that was ever paid me was when someone asked me what I thought and then attended to my answer.'

- Henry David Thoreau

Wavelength does not aim to provide answers, but to help you find your own way forward and we can also help to direct you to professional help if needed.
